Challenge # 1

- CO order for Mark to pay Shelley $375/month for 3 their children.
- Shelley has custody ordered by the parenting plan.
- Mark now has the children in OH.
- Shelley has moved to WY.
- CO case open and Mark is paying.
- Mark requests a modification.

- Can CO modify this order?
  - Why or why not?
- What is the next step?
- WY refuses to modify order until dad obtains change of custody order in OH.
- What now?

Challenge # 2

- CO order for Rebecca to pay Mitch $75/month for their son.
- CO IVD case is closed and NIVD account was not created.
- Mitch applies for services in TX.
- Rebecca is in ID.

Challenge # 2 (continued)

- TX sends IWO to employer to pay CO FSR and request for redirect to CO Central Registry.
- Central Registry instructs employer to send payments to TX SDU.
- FSR later receives payment, which goes into IDSUSP.
- How should this payment be handled?

Challenge # 3

- 2003 TN child support order for Andrew to pay Demi $900/month.
- Andrew resides in CO.
- Demi resides in IA.
- IA sends a request to CO to register and enforce the TN order.
- Andrew objects, stating he has a 2008 divorce decree from IA for only $400 per month.

- Is a Determination of Controlling Order (DCO) necessary?
- What do you do?

Challenge # 4

- SC child support order for David to pay Victoria $800/month for their 4 children.
- Victoria resides in WI.
- David resides in CO.
- WI sends a request to CO to register and enforce the SC order.
- David comes into CO CSE and says that the 3 older children are over the age of 19 and the youngest child is married.

- Is MSO due?
- What do you do?
- Which state has jurisdiction to modify/terminate the order?

Challenge # 5

- TX child support order for Tom to pay Katie $600/month for their three children.
- Tom resides in OK.
- Katie resides in CO and applies for services.
- OK is enforcing the TX order at the request of CO.
- Tom later contacts your office and requests a mod because:
  - He has custody of one child.
  - The second child is in Foster Care in OK.
  - Katie still has the third child with her.

Would the proper action be.....

–Establishment?

–Modification?

–Both?

- Which state has jurisdiction?

Challenge # 6

- IL support order for Andy to pay Gisele $700/month for their two children.
- Andy has been located in MI.
- CO sends a request to MI to register and enforce the IL order.
- Gisele contacts you and reports that one of the children is deceased.

- What do you do?
- Before the modification is started in MI, you are informed that Gisele has now passed away as well. Gisele's mother starts receiving TANF in CO for the remaining child.
  - Now, what do you do?
  - What happens to the order?
- Grandma also wants to have the existing arrears on the case made payable to her.
  - Is this an option?

Challenge # 7

- CO receives a responding action from WA requesting enforcement of a WA order for Suzanne to pay Ricardo $375/mo for their child.
- CO collects payments for 1 year and then receives a CSENet listing WA's balance, which is considerably higher than CO's.

The CO caseworker discovers that WA has been splitting the payments between both of Suzanne's cases.

What do you do?

Challenge # 8

- VA order for Carl to pay LeAnn $75/mo for their child.

- Carl lives in TN.

- LeAnn still lives in VA.

- The child is now with an aunt in CO, receiving assistance.

- Can you send an IWO to Carl's employer in TN?
- Is a change of payee required?
- How do you find out?
- What is your next step?
