

You and What Army?!!

The Roots of Conflict and How to Win the Battle

Presenter: Patti Hoff

Peace is the absence of conflict.

Lessons from Conflict

The World As We See It

PERCEPTION

PIVOTAL MOMENTS

WE ARE NOT VICTIMS OF THE WORLD, WE ARE VICTIMS OF HOW WE SEE THE WORLD.

When we recognize this condition within ourselves, we suddenly have access to a higher level of thinking that impacts how we interact with others

ENERGY CONSCIOUSNESS

The background is a deep blue gradient. At the top and bottom, there are horizontal bands of glowing binary code (0s and 1s) in a lighter blue color. In the center, there are several bright, glowing blue lines that curve and swirl, resembling energy waves or a complex network. A bright, glowing blue sphere is positioned in the center, surrounded by these swirling lines. The overall effect is one of dynamic energy and digital consciousness.

“I see you..”

When you change the way you look at things, the things you look at change. Wayne Dyer

The anatomy Of CONFLICT

CONFLICT – INTEREST BASED/VALUE BASED

- We can avoid it - flee
- We can attack - fight
- We can handle it effectively - dialogue

Conflict presents us with CHOICES...

- Compete or cooperate
- Apply cold, hard logic or give in to emotions
- Stick to principles or compromise
- Avoid or engage

THE CONFLICT PARADOX

Without compromise, we cannot further our principles.

Without a clear adherence to principles, compromise is meaningless.

We don't choose to “just” avoid or engage in conflict—we are always doing a little of both.

INSANITY DEFINED...

Doing the Same Old Things & Expecting Different Results

“If you always do what you’ve always done, you’ll always get what you’ve always got.”

“Problems cannot be solved by the same level of thinking that created them.”

If you do not change direction, you may end up where you are heading
